

COMPULSORY ENGLISH

FOR B.A/B.SC STUDENTS

(New Curriculum)

Revised and Updated Syllabus with effect from 1st July 2014

COMPULSORY ENGLISH

CE12011T

(1 credit)

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The Compulsory English Course is mandatory for all B.A./B.Sc. students and is conducted over one semester. Classes are held once a week.

The course has been designed to create an interest in literature and to develop language skills.

This syllabus has been carefully framed with selections from prose and verse that would encourage students to reflect and express themselves creatively and effectively.

The language component of the course tests the skills of composition, vocabulary and basic grammar.

SYLLABUS

LITERATURE

MODULE ONE: Robert Frost : Stopping by Woods
William Shakespeare : The Seven Ages of Man
Rabindranath Tagore : Where the Mind is Without Fear

MODULE TWO: Bhasham Sahni : The Boss Came To Dinner
O' Henry : The Last Leaf
Bhabani Bhattacharya : The Faltering Pendulum.

LANGUAGE

MODULE THREE: Report Writing
Précis Writing
Letter Writing